LATERAL FLOW TECHNIQUE

Highlights

-  Helpful diagnostic tool to control outbreaks spread, avoid inappropriate antibiotic therapies and reduce health cost and patient morbidity and mortality
-  Easy logistics and storage: usually room temperature
-  Long shelf-life: generally, 24 months
-  Ready to use
-  Suitable for a wide variety of sample types, even from small volumes
-  Safe: minimal sample manipulation
-  Different formats: strip/cassette, single/double cassette
-  Multiplexing (1-4 tests bands)
-  Qualitative, semi-quantitative, quantitative
-  Simple procedure: minimal operator-dependent steps
-  Rapid: results in minutes
-  Easy interpretation of the results: different coloured bands
-  Can be integrated with a reader system
-  Reliable: highly accurate results
-  Robust: great inter-lot reproducibility
-  CE-IVDR marked

LF CONTRACT MANUFACTURING

Supporting the road to your idea

OPERON is the integral solution for your tests design and manufacturing difficulties, offering the following services:

- Co-operation with other companies and public institutions in the development and manufacture of immuno assays.
- Large scale production of tests designed by the client.
- Manufacturing in OEM format.

We also have the skills and the experience to control the whole added value chain of the IVD test:
